

INDEX

In this index we have followed the modern convention of omitting the prefix (or subjectival concord) before the names of persons and places. Thus, Abambo or abaMbo in the text appears as Mbo in the index, Amalala or amaLala in the text appears as Lala in the index, and so on.

In addition, in standardizing the rendering of names and other words, we have followed modern orthographic conventions, which differ in the following respects from those used in Stuart's day.

- 1 In modern orthography, an 'h' is interposed between the consonants 'b', 'c', 'k', 'p', 't', and 'x' and a succeeding vowel when the consonant is aspirated. Thus the name which appears in the text as Bambata is indexed as Bhambatha, Pepeta as Phephetha, and Makuta as Makhutha.
- 2 In modern orthography the old 'dhl' is given as 'dl'. Thus Stuart's Dhladhla is indexed as Dladla, Dhlamini as Dlamini, Madhlokovu as Madlokovu.
- 3 In modern orthography the sound formerly represented by 'r' is represented by 'h'. Thus Stuart's Radebe is indexed as Hadebe, Rawane as Hawane, Marole as Mahole.
- 4 In modern orthography the old 'tsh' is usually (though not always) given as 'sh'. Thus Stuart's Tshaka as given as Shaka, Matshwili as Mashwili, Sotshangana as Soshangana.
- 5 In modern orthography the diphthong formerly written as 'ai' is written as 'ayi'. Thus Stuart's Mqaikana is indexed as Mqayikana, and Mashwaibana as Mashwayibana.
