THE EDITORS

Colin Webb is King George V Professor of History at the University of Cape Town. He was formerly Associate Professor of History at the University of Natal, Pietermaritzburg. His publications include A History of Natal (with the late Edgar Brookes), and A Guide to the Official Records of the Colony of Natal.

John Wright lectures in history at the University of Natal, Pietermaritzburg. He is the author of Bushman Raiders of the Drakensberg 1840-1870.

Colin Webb and John Wright have jointly edited The James Stuart Archive, vols. 1 and 2, and A Zulu King Speaks: Statements Made by Cetshwayo kaMpande on the History and Customs of his People.

Umsungulo. Umhlo. This is was originally name of a person, gave name to tribe. Our ancient ancestor Gabela is now giving his name to a tribe, just as Mkeze, originally a man, has given his name to a tribe.

We are amaFela. We originally came from Swaziland. There is a tradition that we are one and the same as the Swazis.

We must have come from Swaziland with an account of fighting & quarrelling. We came & occupied territory about Nkandhla and Qudeni, eg. Ngongoma forest in side of Qudeni.

There is no place named in us that from which we came in Swaziland.

We intermarry now with the Swazis.

I am not sure how many of our ancient chiefs are buried in vicinity of Duruza, never having been there. Mavovo, Kabazile & Gabela are said to be there.
